

Learn more about MSUFCU's merger with GCCU and what it means for you.

You might be wondering ...

Who is MSUFCU?

MSU Federal Credit Union (MSUFCU) is a credit union headquartered in East Lansing, Michigan. It was originally founded to serve the Michigan State University (MSU) community including students, faculty, staff, alumni, and their families. Since 1937, MSUFCU has grown to serve over 350,000 members, has 23 branches, and has an additional 5 in construction. MSUFCU has $7.61 billion in assets, and more than 1,200 employees.

Will GCCU members become members of MSUFCU?

Yes. Once regulatory approval is received, all current GCCU members will automatically become members of MSUFCU.

Welcome to MSUFCU

We're here to help.

We are pleased to share that the Boards of Directors of Gabriels Community Credit Union (GCCU) and Michigan State University Federal Credit Union (MSUFCU) have collaboratively reached a decision to merge. This merger represents a significant advancement for both institutions and, most importantly, for all of you, our members.

This merger will allow us to provide even greater support in achieving those objectives. As a member of MSUFCU, you'll have access to a wider range of products and services designed to meet your financial needs, including access to cutting-edge digital banking tools, additional branch locations, and more robust saving and loan products.
